II. Organizational Context

UN Women, grounded in the vision of equality enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations, works for the elimination of discrimination against women and girls; the empowerment of women; and the achievement of equality between women and men as partners and beneficiaries of development, human rights, humanitarian action and peace and security.

UN Women, grounded in the vision of equality enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations, works for the elimination of discrimination against women and girls; the empowerment of women; and the achievement of equality between women and men as partners and beneficiaries of development, human rights, humanitarian action and peace and security.

Brazil is an upper middle income and highly diverse country ranked as the sixth-largest population and ninth-largest economy in the world. 52% of its population are women, 56% recognize themselves as afro descendent and 0.5% (close to 897,000) as indigenous. In 2019, the country ranked 79 in the human development index as well as in the gender equality index. Brazil ratified key human rights treaties such as the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), the Belem do Para Convention, and the Convention on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (CERD). Brazil is also signatory of key normative human rights and development instruments such as the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action, the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action and the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. In September 2015, Brazil joined the international community in the adoption of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, committing with the implementation of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), including SDG 5 “Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls” and initiated the process aiming its localization. In December 2019, a new National Development Plan (Plano Pluri-Annual –PPA) 2020-2023 was approved in line with Brazilian Federal Government priorities and vision. All policies and programmes related to women’s rights are resumed in the programme “Protection to life, strengthening of family, promotion, and protection of human rights for all”.

The UN Women Brazil CO Strategic Note 2017-2021 is proposed in the framework of the international commitments to gender equality, empowerment of women and women’s rights of which Brazil is signatory and aligned with national priorities established in the PPA 2020-2023. It also prioritizes the mitigation of the consequences of Covid-19 pandemic on women making it a cross-cutting perspective to all outcome areas and considering race, ethnic and regional perspectives. The CO focus its programme in three outcome areas:

- 1) Women lead, participate in, and benefit equally from governance systems.
- 2) Women have income security, decent work, and economic autonomy.
- 3) All women and girls live a life free from all forms of violence
